Sixty-ninth session
Item 71 of the provisional agenda*
Report of the International Court of Justice

Secretary-General's Trust Fund to Assist States in the Settlement of Disputes through the International Court of Justice

Report of the Secretary-General

I. Introduction

1. The present report is submitted pursuant to paragraph 16 of the Revised Terms of Reference, Guidelines and Rules of the Secretary-General's Trust Fund to Assist States in the Settlement of Disputes through the International Court of Justice (A/59/372, annex), and is subsequent to the report submitted to the General Assembly at its sixty-eighth session (A/68/349) under the agenda item entitled "Report of the International Court of Justice".

II. Mandate

2. The Trust Fund was established in 1989 under the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations, following consultations with the President of the International Court of Justice. In accordance with the Revised Terms of Reference, financial assistance is to be provided to States for expenses incurred in connection with: (a) a dispute submitted to the Court by way of a special agreement, on the basis of Article 36, paragraph 1, of its Statute; (b) a dispute submitted to the Court by way of an application on the basis of Article 36, paragraphs 1 and 2, of its Statute, provided certain conditions are fulfilled (see A/59/372, annex, para. 6 (ii)); or (c) the execution of a judgment of the Court.

* A/69/150.

III. Beneficiaries

3. Subject to the requirements of paragraph 6 of the Revised Terms of Reference, an application for financial assistance from the Fund may be submitted by any State Member of the United Nations, any other State party to the Statute of the International Court of Justice or any State not party to the Statute of the Court having complied with Article 35, paragraph 2, of the Statute.

4. During the period under review (1 July 2013 to 30 June 2014), the Fund received applications from Burkina Faso and the Niger relating to a dispute between the two States concerning a section of their common boundary. Both States request financial assistance to implement the judgment of the International Court of Justice of 16 April 2013 by carrying out the demarcation of the pertinent section of their common boundary on the basis of the Court's delimitation. A panel of experts, set up in accordance with paragraph 9 of the Terms of Reference of the Fund, was tasked with examining the applications and advising me on the parameters of the financial assistance, if any. It should be noted that the recommendation of the panel and my decision on the award of financial assistance will be made in accordance with established practice, bearing in mind the limited resources of the Fund and the necessity to accommodate any potential future applications.

IV. Contributions

5. Voluntary contributions to the Fund may be made by States, intergovernmental organizations, national institutions and non-governmental organizations, and by natural and juridical persons.

6. During the period under review, Switzerland made the following voluntary contribution to the Fund:

State	Amount (United States dollars)	Financial year
Switzerland	22 290.16	2014
Total	22 290.16

7. As of 30 June 2014, the balance of the Fund was $3,152,869.

V. Needs assessment

8. The Charter of the United Nations, in Article 1, paragraph 1, recognizes the settlement of international disputes "by peaceful means, and in conformity with the principles of justice and international law" as one of the basic purposes of the United Nations and as an essential tool for the maintenance of international peace and security. The Court is the principal judicial organ of the Organization. As noted above, the Fund was created with a view to facilitating a decision by parties to a dispute to seek judicial settlement of their dispute through the Court. While I am grateful to the Member State that contributed to the Fund during the period under review, I also note that the number of contributions remains very low. Thus, I strongly urge all States and other relevant entities to give serious consideration to making contributions to the Fund, substantially and on a regular basis.

VI. How to contribute

9. Voluntary contributions to the Fund can be made by bank transfer or by cheque. Cheques should be to the order of the United Nations General Trust Fund, indicating "ICJ Trust Fund (TJA)" in the reference field, and sent to:
